

LISTEN WELL

Hebrews 2:1 We must pay the most careful attention, therefore, to what we have heard, so that we do not drift away.

DURING THE WEEK

Take one of our provided sermon series bookmarks from the Information Table. Read the passage at least once that week and answer the questions provided on the back. Write your answers down in a journal.

For families with kids and teens: Use at least one time around the dinner table to read the passage and answer the questions together.

BEFORE THE SERVICE

Pray before the service either at home, on your drive in, or when you sit in your pew, asking the Holy Spirit to remove distraction and soften your heart to the truths you're about to hear.

For families with kids and teens: Get ready for the service on Saturday night — clothes ready to go, alarm clocks set, and breakfast planned. Pray Saturday night or Sunday morning for good attitudes and God's work to be done in the service.

LISTEN WELL

Hebrews 2:1 We must pay the most careful attention, therefore, to what we have heard, so that we do not drift away.

DURING THE WEEK

Take one of our provided sermon series bookmarks from the Information Table. Read the passage at least once that week and answer the questions provided on the back. Write your answers down in a journal.

For families with kids and teens: Use at least one time around the dinner table to read the passage and answer the questions together.

BEFORE THE SERVICE

Pray before the service either at home, on your drive in, or when you sit in your pew, asking the Holy Spirit to remove distraction and soften your heart to the truths you're about to hear.

For families with kids and teens: Get ready for the service on Saturday night — clothes ready to go, alarm clocks set, and breakfast planned. Pray Saturday night or Sunday morning for good attitudes and God's work to be done in the service.

DURING THE
SERMON

Use the sheet provided in the bulletin to note the important points, insights, questions, or life applications made during the sermon. You could even use your journal from studying the passage during the week.

For families with kids and teens: Younger kids not in Kids' City can take one of our children's bulletins. Older kids can take and keep the provided "My Church Notebook" and bring it with them every week. (Each journal has space for six months of sermons.)

AFTER THE
SERMON:
THINK ABOUT IT

Ask and answer these questions yourself or with another person:

- What is one thing I can take away from the sermon?
- Where did the Holy Spirit convict me, and what does he want me to do?
- How was I encouraged in the gospel?
- What questions do I have still?

For families with kids and teens: Walk through your child's notebook after the service and discuss what they wrote down. Be sure to let them know how you would answer those questions too. Ask them if they believe God wants their family to do anything in light of the passage that morning.

AFTER THE
SERMON:
TALK
ABOUT IT

Participate in or join a Community Group where you can discuss the sermon and become doers of the word and not hearers only (James 1:22).

For families with kids and teens: Use a mealtime during the week to revisit the sermon and encourage one another in the truth of Scripture.

DURING
THE
SERMON

Use the sheet provided in the bulletin to note the important points, insights, questions, or life applications made during the sermon. You could even use your journal from studying the passage during the week.

For families with kids and teens: Younger kids not in Kids' City can take one of our children's bulletins. Older kids can take and keep the provided "My Church Notebook" and bring it with them every week. (Each journal has space for six months of sermons.)

AFTER THE
SERMON:
THINK ABOUT IT

Ask and answer these questions yourself or with another person:

- What is one thing I can take away from the sermon?
- Where did the Holy Spirit convict me, and what does he want me to do?
- How was I encouraged in the gospel?
- What questions do I have still?

For families with kids and teens: Walk through your child's notebook after the service and discuss what they wrote down. Be sure to let them know how you would answer those questions too. Ask them if they believe God wants their family to do anything in light of the passage that morning.

AFTER THE
SERMON:
TALK
ABOUT IT

Participate in or join a Community Group where you can discuss the sermon and become doers of the word and not hearers only (James 1:22).

For families with kids and teens: Use a mealtime during the week to revisit the sermon and encourage one another in the truth of Scripture.