

THE 4 C_s

OF FAMILY DISCIPLESHIP

Consider

Consider your own life and how you are growing as a disciple of Jesus Christ. If we are calling our children to consider Jesus and give up everything to follow him, then they must see us doing the same.

"Train up a child in the way they should go but be sure you go that way yourself."

C.H. Spurgeon

Create

Create discipleship opportunities right into the everyday rhythm of life where your family can be grounded in the gospel. Families must worship together by reading Scripture, singing, and praying.

"A Christian home must be centered upon Christ, and if it is centered upon Christ, then it will be filled with worship."

Jason Helopoulos

Capture

Capture those teachable moments that occur daily where gospel-centered conversations can take place. These are unplanned but can be the most impactful, formative, and remembered times for your child.

"You never know when God will give you an opportunity to imprint His values on your children."

Dennis Rainey

Celebrate

Celebrate the work of God in the big life and spiritual milestones of your family. It is important they see the priority and excitement placed on the right things and know all the glory and praise are God's.

"We transmit what we treasure. We pass on what we're passionate about."

Josh Patterson