

A Note for Today's Service

Today's preaching will be different than what we generally experience on a Sunday morning as we are led in a First-Person Dramatic Narrative Sermon by Shane Dickinson. The idea of this narrative is to "bring to life" a character from the Bible and give a new perspective on a story which we are familiar with. In order to accomplish this the preacher takes upon himself a character from the story and speaks from his perspective. Today Shane will be revealing to us the story of Genesis 6-7.

This will be accomplished with a short introduction by Shane as well as a moment in which he turns around with his back to the audience. Upon turning again the process of becoming the character will have begun.

We invite you to open your Bible and grab your pen as we see what God would have to teach us this morning from the book of Genesis.

Thank you!

When the Flood Waters Came

Genesis 6:9-7:24

Three takeaways:

1. God desires our worship; not mocking.
2. Faithfulness is seen through action despite adversity.
3. Look to your object of mercy.
